DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

This is an L-shaped two and one half story frame house. It is in need of paint but otherwise seems to be in fair condition. On the front facade are two bays plus a gabled wing projecting toward the street. On the front of this wing is a two story polygonal bay window, and in the attic is a round arched window. Between the first and second story of the bay window is a cornice with carved brackets. There was probably at one time a one story porch across the portion of the front opposite the wing.

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

This is an example of vernacular architecture, probably built in the late 19th or early 20th century, and is now badly in need of paint and repair work, although it could be an attractive home. Typical of several Locust Street houses, it is L-shaped with a two story bay window on the front wing.
